Would you like to make a charitable donation?

Your financial donations provide valuable and necessary support for the Society's Branches and programs. AGS is committed to ensuring that funds donated to a specific Branch or project will be used for the good of the Society and not used for routine expenses unless specified in the donation. AGS Donors are recognized by including their names in the Annual Report and in Relatively Speaking unless they wish to remain anonymous. For further information, please review our Donations page at <http://www.abgenealogy.ca/donations-to-ags> or phone the AGS Office at (780) 423-8902.

Members Interests:

We would love to know! Join us at one of our Special Interest Group (SIG) meetings consisting of individuals who gather on a regular basis and have an interest in a specific country, geographic region, or subject. It's a wonderful opportunity to connect with liked-minded individuals, to share resources, and to assistance each other in the challenges of genealogy. SIG descriptions are available on the AGS website under "Branches" <http://www.abgenealogy.ca/branches>

Volunteering

We have some wonderful opportunities for volunteering—no matter what your experience level may be. Visit our Volunteer section under "Become A Member" on the AGS website <http://www.abgenealogy.ca/volunteers>.
